

Advanced Project Management

Training Audience: This training is appropriate for those whose daily duties include the full range of project management. (This is not a basic course and presumes the participant has already had the basic project management training).

Training Cost: $525.00 Cost includes course materials

Training Objectives: Participants will focus on:

- Effective Risk Management
- Earned Value Analysis
- Types of Tools
- ISO 9000 and other Measuring Standards for Quality
- Behaviors needed by effective projects managers (PMs)
- Relationships – between projects and programs

Training Date/Time: March 18 – 20, 2003
Time: 0830 – 1600

Location: Export/Import Building
811 Vermont Ave., NW
(McPherson Square Metro Stop)

Instructors: The instructor will be Mr. Ron Taylor or Mr. John Cormier; both have over 15 years experience working with both private industry & government.

Suspense: NLT 30 days prior to start of class

To Enroll: Submit a completed DD Form 1556 to your Activity Training Coordinator. Block #19: International Training Consortium, Inc., 14225 Bauer Drive, Rockville, MD 20853-2343. No one is selected for this course until they receive a confirmation from the P&ES-W, Human Resource Development Office. Please print your email address in Block #18 of the DD Form 1556. Confirmations will be sent to you via email three weeks prior to class start date. NOTE: Organizations will be charged for “NO SHOWS” and for personnel who substitute without prior approval.

Cancellation Policy: Applicant may cancel 2 weeks prior to start date; after this date, full payment from the organization will be charged. Substitutions can be made up to the day class begins.

For further information, please contact the training help desk at PESWTraining@hqda.army.mil.